B A T E A C H E R

Dragana spent 13 years working as a teacher in a primary school. She loved working with kids, leading them into the new and unknown adventures called life. Always on a look out for new educations, new people, new journey to take her forward privately and professionally.

In 2018. she decided to move on. So, she founded Learning Club Education Lab bringing together parents and teachers to discuss about something as import as upbringing and education for children. Pushing boundaries, trying to make the system better, more humane for kids and teachers, improving relationships between parent and teachers, students and teachers by talking, advocating, reflecting.

At Learning Club, Dragana teaches Croatian to Expats kids, she organises different educations for parents and teachers (lectures, workshops, conferences).

In 2019. she started her own blog called Mum's dance and she writes about parenting and school.
